Foreign Language Week

National Foreign Language week will be observed April 16th - 20th by the Latin and Spanish Clubs of Appomattox County High School.

The purpose of this week is to promote interest and appreciation for languages other than English. Preparations for the week include posters throughout the school and emblems for members of the language clubs.

The highlight of the week will be a visit from a foreign missionary, Reverend S. D. Sprinkle from Costa Rica. He will present a program on his life in another country.

A tea will be given by the Spanish and Latin Clubs after the program honoring Reverend Sprinkle, the faculty and school board administration.

Both clubs are very busy working to make this a very successful celebration of National Foreign Language Week.

Be watching for more news from the ACHS language clubs about this special week.
